

CPYRGHT

THE PERISCOPE

The CIA's Public Relations

Vice Adm. William F. Raborn, the new director of the Central Intelligence Agency, has shuttered the agency's "public affairs" (i.e., public relations) office. Reason: Raborn decided a super-secret agency like the CIA does not have any public affairs.